Supplementary Tax Information – 2025

The following supplementary information may be useful in the preparation of your federal, state, and/or city tax returns. This information is not intended to cover all of the complexities of a shareholder's individual tax situation. Shareholders are advised to consult their own tax advisors with respect to the tax consequences of their investment in the Funds. Because tax laws vary among cities and states, you should consult your tax advisor about the specific rules in the state(s) in which you pay income taxes.

Net Investment Income and Capital Gains Paid in 2025

During 2025, the Funds made the following per share distributions which you may have received depending on your ownership at the time of the distribution. See your respective Form 1099 for the appropriate character of these distributions for tax reporting purposes. The per share distributions noted below do not include any adjustment for qualified dividend income or foreign tax credit.

		Net Investment Income	Short-Term Capital Gains (1)	Long-Term Capital Gains
Dimensional Global Real Estate ETF	25434V658	1.069955	-	-
Dimensional US Real Estate ETF	25434V823	0.680457	-	-

(1) The American Jobs Creation Act of 2004 provides that the qualified portion of a regulated investment company dividend that is a short-term capital gain dividend will not be subject to U.S. tax withholding for non-resident aliens and foreign corporations.

Distributions of net investment income and short-term capital gains, whether paid to you in cash or reinvested in your account during 2025, are taxable as ordinary income for Federal income tax purposes. Distributions of long-term capital gains are taxable as such whether paid to you in cash or reinvested in your account during 2025, regardless of the length of time shares were held by you.

Past distributions and performance are no guarantee of future distributions or results. If you are investing through an IRA or other tax-deferred account, special rules apply.
