Supplementary Tax Information – 2025

The following supplementary information may be useful in the preparation of your federal, state, and/or city tax returns. This information is not intended to cover all of the complexities of a shareholder's individual tax situation. Shareholders are advised to consult their own tax advisors with respect to the tax consequences of their investment in the Funds. Because tax laws vary among cities and states, you should consult your tax advisor about the specific rules in the state(s) in which you pay income taxes.

Net Investment Income and Capital Gains Paid in 2025

During 2025, the Funds made the following per share distributions which you may have received depending on your ownership at the time of the distribution. See your respective Form 1099 for the appropriate character of these distributions for tax reporting purposes. The per share distributions noted below do not include any adjustment for qualified dividend income or foreign tax credit.

(1) The American Jobs Creation Act of 2004 provides that the qualified portion of a regulated investment company dividend that is a short-term capital gain dividend will not be subject to U.S. tax withholding for non-resident aliens and foreign corporations.

(2) Foreign Tax Credit is applicable for certain Funds. Please see enclosed information regarding the Foreign Tax Credit specific to your Fund.

Distributions of net investment income and short-term capital gains, whether paid to you in cash or reinvested in your account during 2025, are taxable as ordinary income for Federal income tax purposes. Distributions of long-term capital gains are taxable as such whether paid to you in cash or reinvested in your account during 2025, regardless of the length of time shares were held by you.

Past distributions and performance are no guarantee of future distributions or results. If you are investing through an IRA or other tax-deferred account, special rules apply.

Foreign Tax Information

The information below summarizes the amount of income by fund that was derived from foreign sources. The foreign source income may have taxes associated with it that were paid to various foreign jurisdictions. Included on your Form 1099-DIV is your proportionate amount of these foreign taxes (Box 7). You may claim this amount either as an itemized deduction or as a foreign tax credit, subject to applicable limitations, on your federal tax return. We suggest that you consult a tax advisor to determine which method is more appropriate for you. To claim a foreign tax credit, you may need to file IRS Form 1116. To determine the amount of foreign source income for Form 1116, multiply the amount in Box 1a of your Form 1099-DIV by the 'Foreign Source Income Factor' in the table below.

		Foreign Source Income Factor

Section 163(j) Interest Dividends

Certain interest income is treated as if the shareholder earned the interest income directly for purposes of section 163(j). A Regulated Investment Company shareholder that receives a section 163(j) interest dividend may treat the dividend as interest income for purposes of section 163(j), subject to holding period requirements and other limitations. To determine the amount of dividends that qualify, shareholders should multiply the total ordinary dividends in Box 1a by the percentages noted below for each fund in which you are invested.

		Section 163(j) Interest Dividends Percent
DFA Global Sustainability Fixed Income Portfolio	25239Y360	88.24%
DFA Social Fixed Income Portfolio	25239Y428	98.29%

Important State Tax Information

U.S. Government Obligations Information

Please check with your state or local tax office or tax advisor to determine whether your state allows you to exclude some or all of the income you earn from mutual funds that invest in U.S. government obligations. If so, multiply the income percentage provided below by the amount in Box 1a of your Form 1099-DIV to determine the amount of exempt interest. The percentage represents the amount of income from U.S. government obligations generally exempt from state income tax. Information is only provided for those funds to which this applies.

For those shareholders who may be required to pay an intangible or personal-property tax, the last column indicates the percentage of assets held in U.S. Government Obligations as of December 31, 2025.

		Percentage of Income from U.S. Government Obligations	Percentage Held in U.S. Government Obligations
DFA Global Sustainability Fixed Income Portfolio *	25239Y360	2.92%	1.71%
DFA Social Fixed Income Portfolio *	25239Y428	41.63%	42.11%
