

Anti-Modern Slavery and Anti-Human Trafficking Statement

Dimensional Fund Advisors Ltd. (“Dimensional UK”) supports the UK Modern Slavery Act 2015 (the “Modern Slavery Act”).

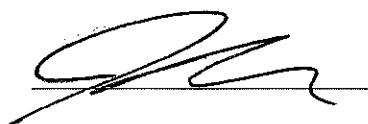

Dimensional UK provides investment management, advisory, trading and ancillary services to its clients, via investment professionals and support staff. Dimensional UK is proud to provide a range of benefits which support and promote the health and wellbeing of its staff in a manner compliant with legal requirements. Dimensional UK believes that it is important that the working conditions of its staff meet required standards and reviews those benefits on a regular basis.

Dimensional UK does not produce, manufacture or retail physical goods and therefore considers the risk of modern slavery within its direct business operations to be very low. Additionally, as a provider of investment management services, Dimensional UK operates in a highly regulated sector and it is authorised and regulated by the UK Financial Conduct Authority.

Dimensional UK has a number of policies and procedures which are considered to be relevant in managing the risk of modern slavery. These include its Global Code of Ethics and Standard of Conduct and also policies and procedures which relate to: (i) anti-bribery and corruption; (ii) sanctions monitoring; (iii) outsourcing; (iv) anti-money laundering; (v) whistleblowing; (vi) investment stewardship; (vii) policies against discrimination and harassment; and (vii) risk management.

Dimensional UK is provided with services by other Dimensional¹ affiliated entities globally. Dimensional UK is also provided services by certain third-party providers who themselves may be subject to the Modern Slavery Act. Dimensional UK’s agreements generally provide that service providers be compliant with applicable law in providing their services to Dimensional UK.

This statement is made by Dimensional UK pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act, for the financial year identified below. It has been approved by the board of Dimensional UK. Dimensional UK will review and, where considered appropriate, update this statement annually.
