Focused Approach Guided by Science

Data Driven

We use environmental data to identify issues we believe have the potential to impose significant external costs on future generations.

Climate Focused

Our approach to ESG investing focuses on the emissions that cause climate change.

Transparent Reporting

Our strategies are designed to provide a meaningful reduction in carbon footprint exposure.

Dimensional's ESG strategies pursue reduced carbon footprint exposure.

Emissions Data

Focusing on greenhouse gas emissions data enables a climate-focused investment approach

Relevancy

Greenhouse gas emissions are the primary driver of climate change.

Accessibility

Companies around the world report greenhouse gas emissions annually.

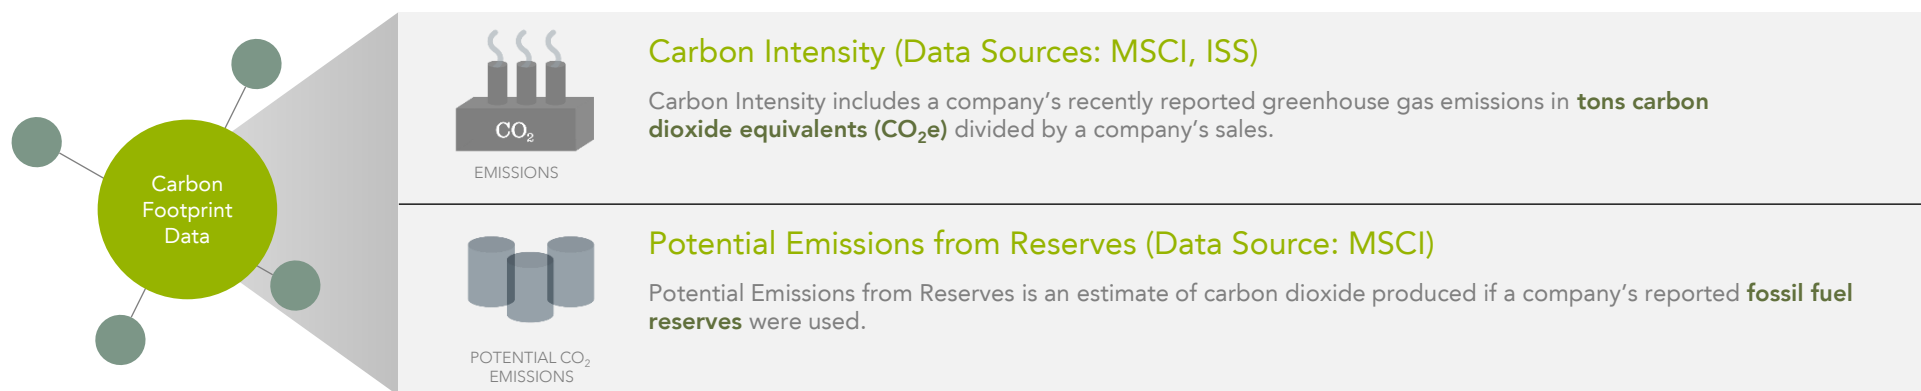

Comparability

Comparing companies' emissions data allows investors to compare companies' environmental characteristics.

Understanding Carbon Footprint Data

Evaluating company emissions by considering what's in the air and in the ground

Carbon Footprint Components:

Carbon Concepts at a Glance

What are carbon dioxide equivalents (CO₂e)?

CO₂e is a unit used to compare emissions of the seven greenhouse gases by converting each gas to an equivalent amount of CO₂ based on their global warming potential.¹

What is 1 Ton CO₂e?

Equivalent to emissions from 427 litres of gasoline consumed¹

Equivalent to carbon sequestered by 1.2 acres of US forests in one year¹

What are fossil fuel reserves?

Companies may have physical assets that include coal, oil, and natural gas, which can lead to high emissions in the future.²

2. Source: MSCI.

Carbon Intensity represents a company's recently reported or estimated Scope 1 (direct) + Scope 2 (indirect) greenhouse gas emissions in carbon dioxide equivalents (CO₂e) normalised by sales in USD (metric tons CO₂e per USD million sales). Greenhouse gases included are carbon dioxide (CO₂), methane (CH₄), nitrous oxide (N₂O), hydrofluorocarbons (HFCs), perfluorocarbons (PFCs), sulphur hexafluoride (SF₆), and nitrogen trifluoride (NF₃). Potential Emissions from Reserves is a theoretical estimate calculated by MSCI of carbon dioxide produced if a company's reported reserves of oil, gas, and coal were converted to energy, given estimated carbon and energy densities of the respective reserves.

Weighted Average Carbon Intensity

Corporate Bonds Only

Weighted Average Potential Emissions from Reserves

Corporate Bonds Only

Weighted Average Carbon Intensity is found by calculating the recently reported or estimated Scope 1 (direct) + Scope 2 (indirect) greenhouse gas emissions in carbon dioxide equivalents (CO₂e) normalized by sales in USD (metric tons CO₂e per USD million sales) for each portfolio or index company and calculating the weighted average by portfolio or index weight. Greenhouse gases included are carbon dioxide (CO₂), methane (CH₄), nitrous oxide (N₂O), hydrofluorocarbons (HFCs), perfluorocarbons (PFCs), sulfur hexafluoride (SF₆), and nitrogen trifluoride (NF₃). Weighted Average Potential Emissions from Reserves is found using a theoretical estimate calculated by MSCI of carbon dioxide produced if a company's reported reserves of oil, gas, and coal were converted to energy, given estimated carbon and energy densities of the respective reserves, for each portfolio or index company and calculating the weighted average by portfolio or index weight. Please see "ESG Data Description and Disclosures" for additional information. Bloomberg data provided by Bloomberg. "Bloomberg Global Aggregate Bond Index 1-5 Years" shown in charts is the Bloomberg Global Aggregate Bond Index 1-5 Years (Hedged to USD).

Sector Weight Distribution by Carbon Intensity

As of March 31, 2025

Corporate sectors defined by Barclays class 2 sector classifications for corporate issuers. Please see "ESG Data Description and Disclosures" slide for additional information. Within the portfolio's target market, region, and industry, each company is classified from Lower Carbon Intensity to Higher Carbon Intensity. The Lowest Carbon Intensity group is defined as approximately the third of companies with the lowest carbon intensity. The Average Carbon Intensity group is defined as the next third; and the Higher Carbon Intensity group is defined as approximately the third of companies with the highest carbon intensity within the target market. Bloomberg data provided by Bloomberg.

Fixed Income ESG Funds

EMPHASISE LOWER CARBON COMPANIES ¹
Goal	Methodology	Policy	Measurement
Overweight lower carbon companies relative to peers	 Allocates a larger proportion of its corporate bond investments to sector leaders to emphasise best-in-class companies based on carbon intensity.	The fund reduces its weighted average carbon intensity exposure relative to the market ² by at least 50%.	The weighted average carbon intensity is measured by using the carbon intensity (tCO ₂ e/USD millions sales) of each company in the fund or in the market and calculating the weighted average by fund or market weight.
	 Allocates a smaller proportion of its corporate bond investments to sector laggards based on carbon intensity.
Avoid highest carbon companies in the market	 Excludes from purchase companies with the highest carbon intensity.
	 Excludes from purchase companies with the largest fossil fuel reserves based on potential emissions from reserves.	The fund reduces its weighted average potential emissions from reserves exposure relative to the market by at least 75%.	The weighted average potential emissions from reserves are measured by using the total potential emissions from reserves (MtCO ₂) of each company in the fund or in the market and calculating the weighted average by fund or market weight.

The fund generally seeks to invest in direct holdings and a minimum of 80% of its investments will be aligned with the E/S characteristics promoted by the fund. See "Disclosures" to learn how to obtain the fund's Prospectus which includes complete information on the fund's ESG considerations. Additionally, please refer to the fund's Sustainability-Related Disclosures at www.dimensional.com/SFDR.

1. The ESG considerations are applied to corporate bonds. Certain criteria are also applied to non-corporate bonds. Carbon intensity and potential emissions from reserves screens are applied to supranational organisations and non-sovereign agencies. Treasury, sovereign, and local authority debt are assessed on the respective sovereign entity's greenhouse gas emissions per GDP and the highest emitters are underweighted in aggregate.

2. The market approximately corresponds to the constituents of the comparative index that are classified to the corporate sector. Bonds are generally weighted according to their market value.

1. Dimensional's ESG funds generally (a) avoid purchase and (b) divest from companies which, in our opinion, are involved in these activities and controversies. Indirect involvement, for example through ownership structures, may also lead to exclusion. Should existing holdings, compliant at the time of purchase, subsequently become involved, they will be divested within a reasonable period considering turnover, liquidity and associated trading costs. Exclusions are not applied to cash, derivatives or third-party fund holdings. If no relevant information can be obtained from either internal or external sources that would lead a company to be excluded from the fund, the company is deemed to be eligible for investment.

Important Information—ESG Funds

Investments involve risks. The investment return and principal value of an investment may fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original value. There is no guarantee strategies will be successful.

Performance data shown represents past performance and is not a guarantee of future results. Current performance may be higher or lower than the performance shown. Performance may increase or decrease as a result of currency fluctuations.

The Fund's sustainability impact considerations may limit the number of investment opportunities available, and as a result, at times may produce different returns or more modest gains than funds that are not subject to such special investment conditions. Sustainability impact considerations may cause a Fund's industry allocation to deviate from that of funds without these considerations and of conventional benchmarks.

The Fund promotes sustainability in accordance with Article 8 of Regulation (EU) 2019/2088) on sustainability related disclosures in the financial services sector (SFDR). The Fund does not have sustainability investment as its objective but as part of the Fund's investment policy, the Investment Manager does take into account the sustainability impact associated with securities when making investment decisions for the Fund. While the Fund promotes sustainability and the Investment Manager takes into account sustainability impact considerations, the Fund's investments are not evaluated against the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities and, therefore, the "do no significant harm" principle does not apply to the Fund's investments. Consider the investment objectives of the Dimensional funds carefully before investing. For this and other information about the Dimensional funds, please read the prospectus, KID and KIID carefully before investing. Information on sustainability related disclosures in the financial services sector (SFDR) pursuant to Regulation (EU) 2019/2088 in relation to the promoted fund is available at www.dimensional.com/SFDR.

Any references herein to "sustainable" or "sustainability" do not indicate that the Fund commits to make sustainable investments within the meaning of the Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation (SFDR). The Fund may promote environmental and/or social characteristics but does not commit to make sustainable investments.

The Fund may invest in other underlying funds. The Fund's performance, costs and risks will be affected by the underlying funds. There can be no assurance that an underlying fund will achieve its investment objective.

The Fund may invest in smaller companies. This carries a higher risk as shares of small companies are often more difficult to sell than those of large companies, and as a result their share price can fluctuate more. In general, smaller companies are also more vulnerable than larger companies to adverse market conditions.

The Fund may invest in emerging markets which may be less economically or politically developed and can involve greater risks than well developed economies. Amongst other issues, decreased liquidity, political unrest and economic downturn may be more likely and could affect the value of your investment. Investment in emerging markets can be more expensive and challenging to buy, sell and withdraw investments. Investments in emerging markets also have an increased risk of settlement default.

The Fund may seek to identify and invest in value shares, which are (in the Investment Manager's view) shares, the prices of which are low compared to the accounting values of the companies issuing them. Value shares may perform differently from the market as a whole and following a value oriented investment strategy may cause the Fund, at times, to underperform funds that use other investment strategies.

The Fund may invest in tradeable debt (bonds), the return on which depends on the issuer's ability or willingness to make its payments. There is a risk that the issuer will fail to do so. Although the Fund generally invests in bonds with high ratings, these ratings are subjective and a high rating does not guarantee an issuer's ability or willingness to pay.

The Fund may use derivatives in an attempt to reduce risk (hedging) or for investment purposes. Derivatives can be a risky asset. They can be subject to risks such as counterparty, liquidity, interest rate, market, credit and management risks and improper valuation. The Fund, in turn, may be affected by this and the share price may fluctuate, which may result in a loss to the Fund.

More information in relation to risks in general may be found in the "Risk Factors" section of the prospectus. See Appendix slide "Disclosures" for information on how to obtain the latest version of the KID, KIID, and Prospectus.

The principal risks of investing in the Dimensional funds may include one or more of the following: market risk, small companies risk, risk of concentrating in the real estate industry, foreign securities and currencies risk, liquidity risk, political risk, tax risk, settlement risk, risk associated with availability of market information, emerging markets risk, banking concentration risk, interest rate risk, risk of investing for inflation protection, fixed income risk and/or fund-of-funds risk. To more fully understand the risks related to an investment in the funds, investors should carefully read each fund's prospectus, KID, and KIID.

Small cap securities are subject to greater volatility than those in other asset categories. Environmental and social screens may limit investment opportunities for the fund. International investing involves special risks such as currency fluctuation and political instability. Investing in emerging markets may accentuate these risks. Sector-specific investments can also increase investment risks.

ESG Data Description and Disclosures

Data Provider Disclosure

Certain information incorporated herein has been provided by Institutional Shareholder Services Inc. ("ISS") and by MSCI ESG Research Inc. ("MSCI"). Although Dimensional Fund Advisors' information providers, including without limitation, ISS and MSCI and their affiliates (the "Data Providers"), obtain information from sources they consider reliable, none of the Data Providers warrants or guarantees the originality, accuracy, and/or completeness of any data herein. None of the Data Providers makes any express or implied warranties of any kind, and the Data Providers hereby expressly disclaim all warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose, with respect to any data herein. None of the Data Providers shall have any liability for any errors or omissions in connection with any data herein. Further, without limiting any of the foregoing, in no event shall any of the Data Providers have any liability for any direct, indirect, special, punitive, consequential, or any other damages (including lost profits) even if notified of the possibility of such damages.

Data Sources and Limitations

The following data sources are used to apply the ESG considerations of the Dimensional ESG Funds:

- Data for carbon intensity are sourced from external vendors, such as MSCI and ISS.
- Data for potential emissions from reserves are primarily sourced from external vendors, such as MSCI, and may be supplemented with internal data sets.
- Data for sovereign-level greenhouse gas emissions per GDP are collected from external sources, such as Climate Watch and the World Bank.
- Data for business activities are primarily sourced from external vendors, such as MSCI and ISS, and may be supplemented with internal data sets.
- Data for ESG controversies are primarily sourced from external vendors, such as MSCI and ISS, and may be supplemented with internal data sets and/or information from publicly available assessments.

The environmental and social data landscape is still maturing. A lack of company reported data remains one of the primary limitations. For example, the coverage of reported greenhouse gas emissions tends to be lower for small and emerging market companies, although the trend of available reported data in these markets continues to improve. Another limitation is the inconsistency of data and methodologies across vendors and companies. Dimensional avoids relying on third-party ESG ratings, which are often subjective, and instead focuses on more objective and consistently reported metrics. We take commercially reasonable efforts to collect external data sets and develop internal data sets that allow Dimensional ESG Funds to apply their ESG considerations.

In equities, external vendors, for example, provide reported or modelled carbon intensity data for nearly all the companies eligible for Dimensional ESG Funds when measured by free-float market capitalisation. Companies where carbon intensity data is not available are assigned a sector average value. Companies where potential emissions from reserves data is not available, either from external or internal data sets, are assigned zero emissions.

In fixed income, external vendors, for example, provide reported or modelled carbon intensity data for nearly all the companies eligible for Dimensional ESG Funds when measured by market value of outstanding bonds. Corporate issuers where carbon intensity data is not available are assigned a sector average value. Agency / supranational issuers where carbon intensity data is not available are not considered in the calculation as no reliable estimate can be assigned (information on data availability for agencies and supnationals will be disclosed in the Annual Report of the Dimensional ESG Funds). Issuers where potential emissions from reserves data is not available, either from external or internal data sets, are assigned zero emissions. Treasury / sovereign / local authority issuers where sovereign-level greenhouse gas emissions per GDP data is not available are included with the highest emitters.

The ESG Funds do not have sustainability investment as their objective but as part of the ESG Funds’ investment policy, the Investment Manager does take into account the sustainability impact associated with securities when making investment decisions for the ESG Funds.
